Required Documents for Government Procured Shipments:

The service member is responsible to complete and provide all of the following documents on the day of their TMO briefing. If the following paperwork is not provided, alcohol will NOT be included in your HHG/UB shipment.

- a) Stateside Authorization: Contact your states' Alcohol Control Board authorities at your new duty station and determine any and all importation restrictions and requirements using this link: <https://www.ttb.gov/wine/alcohol-beverage-control-boards#us>. We will need something in writing stating that you are in fact authorized to ship alcohol to your gaining duty station.
- b) Proof of Payment: Pay all customs fees and/or importation taxes AND provide all receipts (if applicable). Please remember that not all states have import taxes. If the ATF or state Alcohol Control Board authorities at your new duty station have no fee for importation of alcohol, you must provide documentation stating so.
- c) Customs Power of Attorney: In order to expedite wine shipments through CONUS customs ports, it is necessary for you to complete a power of attorney for the customs broker. This is required for the shipper to sign documents required by US Customs and Border Protection. You will complete the form with legal office and return it to TMO.
- d) Alcohol Inventory: You must prepare an accurate inventory to supplement the carrier's inventory. Handwritten inventories will not be accepted. Members must sign each page of the provided inventory.

THIS IS JUST A TEMPLATE. You can use Excel or Microsoft products to create your wine inventory as long as it contains all of the information listed below

Alcohol Beverage Authorities in United States, Canada, and Puerto Rico

State and Local Laws

In the United States, each state has the authority to regulate the production, sale, and distribution of alcohol within its borders. This means state and local jurisdictions may have their own requirements in addition to federal requirements. State laws and regulations vary widely from state to state, and may be more restrictive than federal regulations.

You must meet all state and local requirements in any state where you plan to do business (unless Federal law preempts the state law). If you plan to do business in a state, you must contact its appropriate authorities for more information about the state and local requirements.

EXAMPLE

I received your email concerning shipping your personal alcoholic beverage collection to Florida. Florida law allows active duty, retired and civilian military personnel to do so tax free. This letter will serve as authorization to accept your collection of alcohol without paying the Florida excise tax.

Please provide a copy of this letter to your shipping company as proof for customs that the shipment is not subject to the excise taxes when it enters Florida.

If you have additional questions please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,
